My Wonderful Family Outings

Class: 5B Name: Hung Yee Hang Ethan

Dear Patrick,

How are you?

I visited my grandpa 3 weeks ago. We talked about what he could do when he was a child.

My grandpa could prepare a meal and eat with chopsticks by himself when he was ten years old. He could carry his school bag, pack his school bag and button his clothes when he was young.

I could cut my fingernails, brush my hair and put on my shoes when I was ten years old.

My grandpa has many hobbies. He likes playing board games, playing football, reading books and going hiking.

My hobbies are playing Roblox games and surfing the Internet.

I think my grandpa's childhood was boring because he could not play Roblox.

How about you?

Love,
Ethan

Housework Hero

Class: 5C Name: Chong Hoi Tung Mag

Ken's mom was perfect in every way. She did housework because someone else might not do it. It was not always fun, and she would much rather go shopping or do something more enjoyable, but she did it for her family. She took care of it for her son. Ken loved his mom and so he wished to relieve her of her burden.

One morning, Ken had breakfast while his mother hung the washing and ironed his clothes. They were ecstatic. Ken shared the workload and tidied up his toys in the afternoon. His mother vacuumed the rug. They were giddy with happiness.

In the evening, Ken and his mother did grocery shopping in the supermarket. After that, his mother emptied the trash can. She discovered a cockroach while taking out the trash. She was terrified of the situation.

At night, they were starving and were looking forward to something delicious to eat. Ken's mother prepared a meal in the kitchen. What a whirlwind of a day this has been! However, Ken thought that it was a meaningful day.

The Mid-Autumn Festival

Class: 5D Name: Ko Lok Yiu Minnie

Dear Janice,

How are you? I know you are interested in how we celebrate the Mid-Autumn festival in Hong Kong. Let me tell you something about it.

Before the Mid-Autumn Festival, we will buy some fruit like starfruit, bananas or persimmons. Also, we will buy snowy mooncakes and prepare some lantern riddles. It is amazing and joyful.

During the Mid-Autumn Festival, we will play with the lanterns and solve the riddles with our family. Moreover, we will admire the full moon at night. It is interesting and wonderful.

Finally, we will have a reunion dinner and eat mooncake with our family. The Mid-Autumn Festival is a very important traditional festival in Chinese culture. We cherish the chance to gather with our family. Thank You, my dear God, for creating families. I will think of our beautiful heavenly home this Mid-Autumn Festival.

What is your favourite festival? Please write back soon.

All the best,
Sally

Ben's family day

Class: 5E Name: CHINEDU CHINEYENWA FAVOUR

"It didn't matter how big our house was; it mattered that there was love in it." Ben understands this saying more than ever before today.

Last Sunday was the storytelling Carnival at school. Ben's little brother, Josh, joined the fashion show. Ben's family usually go out to enjoy their family time, so they decided to watch the carnival together to show their support to Ben. Ben felt happy and excited because he could enjoy a wonderful and meaningful afternoon with his family.

The fashion show has started. Ben sat in the school hall with his parents. They enjoyed the show very much! Suddenly, a princess in a floral dress and a shiny crown showed up. Most of the audience were whispering that she would definitely win this competition. All the audience gave her a round of applause. Josh was super nervous.

It was his turn! He dressed as a pirate in a checked shirt and a rotten pirate hat. While he was walking in the middle of the stage, his hat dropped on the floor. Josh was shocked and frightened too! He was panicking and didn't know what to do.

'Go on, Josh!' Dad raised his voice. Ben and Mum clapped their hands too. Suddenly Josh looked at them and his eyes lit up. He picked the hat up and continued his performance.

Ben felt happy for him! 'What a wonderful day!' he thought.
